Charity BBQ nets $500.00 for Hope Reins Equine Assisted Therapy Program and the War Horse Project!

Back in the warmer days of this past summer GT Pembroke hosted a Charity BBQ for the awesome people at Hope Reins of Pembroke & Killaloe. They cooked up the hot dogs and served up the cold drinks that netted them the proceeds of $500.00 on a very warm and sunny Friday August 1st. Many thanks to all our patrons and downtown neighbours who came out to enjoy a BBQ Lunch and support this great cause.

The War Horse Project, a pilot project for equine assisted therapy specifically designed for members of the military dealing with the aftereffects of trauma such as PTSD was offered this year through Hope Reins and their group of dedicated volunteers and was conducted at a family farm in Pembroke. For more information in regards to Hope Reins and the War Horse Project be sure to visit their website at: hopereinsterapy.com or call them at 613-757-1078 or email: info@hopereinsterapy.com
